No Roses

Skies Cry, So Do El Camino Fans

El Camino College fans were as damp as the rain-laden skies Monday as the Junior Rose Bowl selection committee announced that Hartnell Junior College of Salinas had been picked to represent the West in the Dec. 13 classic.

Students were crying not only at EC, but at Compton, too, as the two also-rans beweped their bitter fate at being left out in the cold, wet weather.

Tartar Cagers Lose Third In Row to Banning

By WIN BOWLES

Torrance High's basketball forces lost their third in a row Tuesday, this time to Banning, 52-39, and the lackadaisical play of the first string led some observers to wonder, your scribe among them, if they think may be they've got it made.

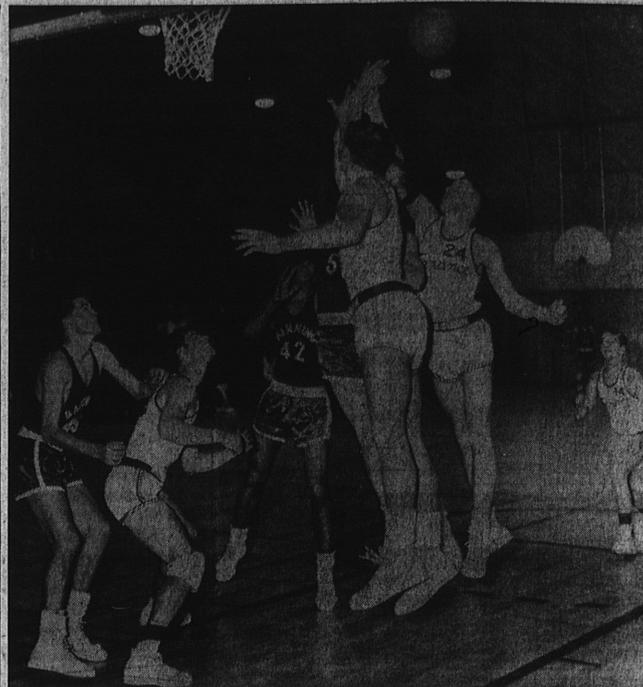

With the exception of one or two players, the varsity appeared as if they just didn't give a hoot about the game. True, the absence of Guard Leo Valencia, out for at least six weeks with a broken thumb, hurt the Tartars, but it didn't provide an excuse for not trying. Seldom did a player follow his shot into the hole, and control of the backboard, especially their own, was something the Torrance players didn't seem to have heard about.

As the topper, the Tartars shooting eyes also seem to have been crossed, since they were missing their set shots like crazy. They did not attempt too many layups, working from 20 feet out most of the time. Banning, on the other hand, looks like a coming team. Led by smooth Ivan Schuler, who canned 18 points, the quintet played as a team, jumping into a six-point lead early in the game and never relinquishing it. Fred Quebec with 10 points and Bob Raine with eight materially aided the Banning cause.

Point scorers for Torrance were Farrar, 12; Bob Moon, 7; Larry Roy, 6; Bill Sommers and Tom Ruffell, 3; Harold Philip, Lee Mortenson, Bob Kulp and Ray Foulger, 2.

STATE FLOWER

New Hampshire's state flower is the purple lilac.

SCRAMBLE . . . Banning and Torrance High School basketballers go high in the air after that elusive casaba in Tuesday afternoon's contest at Torrance gym. Banning took the nod, 52-39. In this first half action the Tartars' Jerry Farrar (back to camera) and Harold Holmes (54) compete with Banning's Ivan Schuler (50) for the ball, while Bob Raine (45) Larry Roy (with kneepad) Fred Quebec (42) and Bill Sommers (14) wait for the results.

Second Hi-Y Club Sought

The Torrance YMCA has issued a call for sophomore boys at the high school to form a second Hi-Y club.

"All boys of the sophomore class may join this club," Mr. Roberts, YMCA executive secretary said. "The boys are asked to come to the YMCA on Wednesday evening at 7:30.

Several sponsors have been approached for this new group and have indicated their willingness to work with the fellows in their YMCA program.

S. F. J. V. 52-0; Marin, 15-0, and Monterey, 13-6.

Bacone stacks up like this: N.E. Okla. A.&M. 14-7; Independence, Kans., 46-6; Okla. Military, 46-0; Porterville, 39-13; Riverside, 26-12; Menlo, 26-13; East Contra Costa, 19-0; Napa, 19-14; Friends, Kans., 45-6, and No.
